PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

- 19 You shall reside in a residential reentry center (RRC) for a period of up to 180 days. You shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility and shall participate in programs offered by the facility at the direction of the supervising officer.

CAUSE

Jason Jennen has failed to maintain employment throughout the entire period of supervised release. In July 2012, Mr. Jennen claimed to the undersigned officer that he was enrolled in school. However, to date he has yet to provide proof of school enrollment, and recently reported that he now does not have the money to start school. On September 6, 2012, the undersigned officer contacted Mr. Jennen at another Federal offender's residence. On September 21, 2012, Mr. Jennen failed to report for substance abuse testing as directed. Further, on October 3, 2012, Mr. Jennen submitted a urine specimen which yielded initial positive findings for methamphetamine.

As evidenced above, Mr. Jennen is struggling to maintain compliance with the conditions of supervised release. Placement at a Residential Reentry Center (RRC) appears to be an appropriate sanction to address his noncompliance. Further, it will assist Mr. Jennen in securing employment, and will allow him to continue with substance abuse treatment.
